NARRATIVE:

Rabago, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include multiple convictions for possession of a firearm by a felon. He has also been convicted for robbery, grand theft of person, and failing to report. At the age of 25, Rabago has already served multiple state prison terms, the longest being 3 years for possession of a firearm by a felon. Rabago was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January 22nd, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in April 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Rabago qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of a firearm by a felon is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
